

- Has your employer carried out a pregnancy risk assessment?
- Are you being sidelined at work as a pregnant employee?
- Have you been denied a promotion because of pregnancy or childbirth?
- Has your request for flexible working been unreasonably refused?

babylaw^{uk}
you | your bump | the law

Babylaw is a niche employment law practice specialising in providing advice to those who are suffering from disadvantage at work resulting from their pregnancy and/or child birth. We can assist you if you are having difficulties at work whether it be because of your pregnancy or returning to work following a period of maternity leave. We work exclusively for employees, offering a confidential and personal service. We also offer a 30 minute free consultation by telephone or email.

Please contact us on 08445 61 11 61 or you can email us at info@babylaw.co.uk